In re: UNITED STATES VS. ALFONSO ESCOBAR-HERNANDEZ
 DOCKET No. CR-06-241

Dear judge Gleeson:

I am writing to request an adjournment in the above referenced case. Yesterday I received discovery material from the government and this morning I visited my client to discuss said material. The material offered has strong bearing on whether a trial would be a wise decision for my client.

After that I contacted the AUSA John Durham and requested a meeting early next week to which he has agreed.

He has also no objection to an adjournment of this case. I would of course waive speedy trial for the length of this short adjournment in the interest of justice.

My client will be served by this adjournment in that this case may well be resolved without the need for a trial. I would ask the opportunity to do so.

Respectfully submitted,

Francisco Hernandez, Esq.
